January - September 2018

People in Need

People Reached

82% Reach against cluster target

Districts Reached in 22 governorates

130.8M received

64.6M required

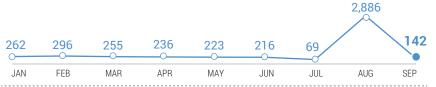

Out of an estimated 7 million people in need of nutrition assistance, some 4.6 million people were reached with assistance. 266,000 Boys and girls (6-59 months) treated for Moderate Acute Malnutrition out of 842,000 was targeted. Also, total of 200,000 Pregnant and lactating women was treated for acute malnutrition out of 527,000 was targeted.

NUMBER OF BENEFICIARIES REACHED

39% 38% 23% Girls Boys Women

NUMBER OF BENEFICIARIES BY MONTH (in thousands)

ACHIEVEMENTS BY INDICATOR

2.9M

Boys and girls (6-59 months) received vitamin A supplementation

4.2M

Boys and girls (6-59 months) targeted for vitamin A supplementation

266K

Boys and girls (6-59 months) treated for Moderate Acute Malnutrition (MAM)

842K

Boys and girls (6-59 months) targeted for Moderate Acute Malnutrition

433K

Boys and girls (6-24 months) received micronutrion supplementation

729K

Boys and girls (6-59 months) targeted for micronutrition supplementation

200K

Pregnant and lactating women treated for acute malnutrition

527K

Pregnant and lactating women targeted for acute malnutrition treatment

response indicator annual target

198K

Boys and girls (6-59 months) treated for Severe Acute Malnutrion (SAM)

268K

Boys and girls (6-59 months) targeted for Severe Acute Malnutrition

KEY CLUSTER HIGHLIGHTS

Outpatient therapeutic centers

Mobile teams

Supplementary feeding centers available across the country

available across the country

conducting CMAM programmes in 268 districts

